

21st Century Competence Workshops Series

The 21st C Learner is . . .

Seattle Public Schools International Schools and the World Affairs Council are pleased to invite you to attend one or more of our series of workshops on 21st Century Global Competence. Each of the three workshop sessions is $30.00. Sign up for the first one today and discover new ways to internationalize your classroom! Earn 3 clock hours by completing the online module that accompanies the workshop.

Session 2: Collaboration in the Classroom and Beyond Monday January 8, 2018 @ 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM

Mercer International Middle School Library
1600 S Columbian Way, Seattle, WA 98108

Presenters at this event will be Meg Luthin from Mercer International Middle School and Rachel Evans from Cleveland High School

Goals for Session 2: Collaboration in the Classroom and Beyond:

- Identify the components of collaboration
- Examine how collaboration is interconnected with the CCSS and other 21st century skills and Global Competence
- Set professional goals for how we can intentionally teach collaboration skills

Register now:

<https://www.world-affairs.org/calendarevent/2018-21st-century-competence-workshops-session-2/>